

THE NETHERLANDS

2 country risk(s) have been identified

- LABOUR RIGHTS (2)

DISCRIMINATION & GENDER (2 RISKS)

Research shows that 9% of Dutch women has had to deal with a form of sexual harassment in the workplace. There is reason to believe that women with weak socio-economic positions (such as Eastern European migrant workers) are particularly vulnerable to this, and report it less frequently .

Sources: Fairwork, Kwetsbaarheid van vrouwelijke Poolse arbeidsmigranten voor seksuele intimidatie, 2016, Rutgers & Movisie, Seksuele grensoverschrijding en seksueel geweld, 2015

The Dutch police uses ethnic profiling during stop-and-search operations, which can lead to unrealistic views on certain minorities in the Netherlands. Read more about this in the Amnesty International report.

Sources: Amnesty International, Report 2017/2018 - The state of the World's Human Rights, 2018
